

Surya Kiran Engineering Works is an I.S.O.9001:2008 Certified multi organization engaged in the manufacturing of F.H.P. Motors based in Noida & Haridwar. The company has earned an enviable reputation in the industry for manufacturing quality products that meet customer requirement.

The company has state-of-art production unit equipped with all the latest machineries for designing and manufacturing of world class quality products. The unit is backed by dedicated, experienced and well qualified engineers and other staff members who are committed to quality products and overall growth of the company.

Every product is made through the finest quality material and checked by qualified quality control professionals to ensure that they are durable and provide complete satisfaction to the customers. With over a decade of experience in the industry, the company fully understands the needs and requirements of its customers.

All the products conform to ISI standards and the company is also registered with Director General of Supply & Disposal and has been awarded Rate Contract for supply of Ex. Fan & Ceiling Fan to various government departments.

Company Policy: committed to offer the customers quality products at competitive prices and on time delivery schedules backed by efficient after sales service support.

Company Vision

The company is eager to develop strong and mutually beneficial business relationship with its customers having a keen eye to incorporate the latest in technological advancements.